

From: Nancy Jones
To: Christopher Ruhl
Cc: R6_DWH_Info@epamail.epa.gov
Subject: Fw: New Orleans addresses
Date: 05/25/2010 01:56 PM

See below

Sent by EPA Wireless E-Mail Services

From: Charles Backstrom [Charles.Backstrom@LA.GOV]
Sent: 05/25/2010 01:30 PM EST
To: Nancy Jones
Cc: Rosanne Prats <Rosanne.Prats@la.gov>; EOCWATCH <EOCWATCH@LA.GOV>; Mark Ryan <MRyan@lsuhsc.edu>; Dianne Dugas <Dianne.Dugas@LA.GOV>
Subject: FW: New Orleans addresses

Ms. Jones,

This is document we discussed. We are asking if EPA could do any follow-up or air monitoring on these complaints. The complainants also said they were suffering throat irritation as result of inhaling the odor filled air. A lot of the calls we have been receiving are coinciding in time with the longest InSitu burns. Not sure if there is any correlation.

Regards,
Steve Backstrom
DHH Liaison
Room 401
BP HOLC

From: EOCWATCH
Sent: Tuesday, May 25, 2010 1:07 PM
To: Sundee Warren; Charles Backstrom; EH MC252 Event
Cc: EOCDOCU
Subject: FW: New Orleans addresses

From: Ryan, Mark [mailto:MRyan@lsuhsc.edu]
Sent: Tuesday, May 25, 2010 12:57 PM
To: EOCWATCH
Subject: New Orleans addresses

Addresses in New Orleans reporting oil odor last evening and this morning are 3426 Dauphine and 3032 St. Claude mark

Mark Ryan, PharmD

Director

Louisiana Poison Center

1455 Wilkinson Street

Shreveport, LA 71103

(318)813-3314

mryan@lsuhsc.edu